Workshop 4 Astrology and careers

The study of an astrological chart or birth chart sheds light on the areas that inspire us and points us in a direction. It highlights the areas of social and/or professional activity in which we are most predisposed and where we are most likely to flourish.

Every profession, especially if it is highly specialised, has its own psychological profile. This book establishes a correlation between a person's astrological chart and the professions that are most suited to them.

Each planet in the solar system is associated with certain specific aptitudes: the Moon with receptivity, the Sun with willpower and exemplary behaviour; Mercury with curiosity and communication; Venus with emotionality and aesthetic sense; Mars with combativeness and dynamism; Jupiter with organisational skills; Saturn with rigour and patience; Uranus with innovation and discovery; Neptune with intuition and premonition; Pluto with research and investigation.

The sun sign at birth is the main indicator and provides general guidance. It symbolises the energy field used to develop our personal charisma, make choices and fulfil our destiny. The path to our fulfilment lies in the energies of the sign occupied by the sun. It is our inner guide, our life force and indicates where we are heading.

| 8) Total points for each sign | | | | | | | | | | | | |
|-------------------------------|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|

Add up the points for each sign and write the total in line 8) (last line of the table).

Note :

♈ = Sign of Aries, ♉ = Sign of Taurus, ♊ = Gemini sign,

♋ = Cancer sign ♌ = Sign of Leo, ♍ = Virgo sign,

♎ = Libra sign, ♏ = Sign of Scorpio ♐ = Sign of Sagittarius,

♑ = Capricorn sign, ♒ = Sign of Aquarius, ♓ = Sign of Pisces

Write down the two symbols with the most points in line 8) and write their names in the table below:¹

|-----------------------------|--|
| First dominant sign | |
| Second dominant sign | |

Next, refer to the chapter corresponding to your sun sign and note the professions associated with one or two of your dominant signs. These are probably the most suitable for you or may provide you with avenues for further research.

Important notes:

-If one or more planets in your astrological chart are in the 6th house, refer to chapter 4. This chapter provides guidance on the challenges you may face in the workplace or in relation to your colleagues, superiors or employees.

¹ If you have knowledge of astrology, you can refine these results as follows: add 2 points to the sign if its ruler is close to the Ascendant, 2 points to the sign if its ruler is close to the Midheaven (MC), 2 points to the sign if its ruler is close to the ruler of the Ascendant, 1 point to the sign if its ruler is in aspect with one or more planets, 1 point to the sign if the house in affinity with this sign is occupied by one or more planets.

-If one or more planets in your birth chart are in the 10th house, refer to chapter 3. This chapter provides advice on how to succeed, climb the career ladder or meet society's expectations.

-If planets are in aspect in your astrological chart, refer to chapter 5. There you will find advice on how to overcome conflicts that could hinder your success.

Reminder:

Progression method for each course

This training is intended for independent, curious individuals who are ready to learn on their own, without homework, assigned exercises or intermediate assessments. The path proposed here is experiential: it is less about 'learning' than observing, feeling, connecting and practising.

Here are a few guidelines to help you progress:

No rote learning

No content needs to be memorised mechanically. The aim is not to acquire encyclopaedic knowledge, but to allow a living understanding of each symbol to mature within you. The lessons and associated readings are tools for awakening, not fixed knowledge. Let them sink in.

A practice-based approach

The astrology taught here is a path of practice, not abstract knowledge. For each element covered (planet, sign, house, aspect, etc.), it is strongly recommended that you observe actual charts. This may include:

- Your own birth chart
- Those of your loved ones (family, friends)
- Public figures (artists, writers, politicians, etc.) whose charts are available online

Support available by email

Although the course is self-paced, you can contact me by email via the zenastral.fr website if you would like further explanation, clarification or a more in-depth discussion at any point during the course.

Reading: Astrology and careers

This book establishes a correlation between a person's birth chart and their professional profile. It is a valuable asset for informing career choices. It will allow you to discover a selection of careers that match your personality and are suited to your skills. You will find professions that the person may never have considered, but which are in harmony with their character. The professions for which the person is most suited are those in which they are most likely to flourish.
